

Confidentiality

It is the responsibility of department heads to ensure that their faculty/staff are informed of the requirement for confidentiality in procurement transactions. It is considered unethical, as well as damaging to the University's reputation, to allow information from one supplier's quotation to be shared directly or indirectly with another supplier.

All files within Procurement Se