

Developing Business

Wheel-world learning

Andrew Pye has a business to run. So when it comes to taking time for professional development, he needs programs that make the most of his time: those that are convenient, practical, and outcomes driven. Saint Mary's Certificate in Financial Management met those needs – and more.

“This program was exactly what I was looking for,” says Andrew, president of Andy’s Tire Shop Ltd., in Truro. “The classes were spaced far enough apart that I had time to apply what we were taught in the previous classes; the pace was fast enough that you felt like you were getting something done,
