

Application for Full -Time Continuation Status

The normal status for continuation students is ~~part~~. Under exceptional circumstances, and for a limited period of time, a continuation student may be identified as ~~part~~.

In order for fulltime status to apply, students will normally:

1. be geographically available to the university,
2. visit the campus regularly,
3. not be engaged in fulltime employment (on or off campus) and
4. be in pursuit of their studies as a full

